Region 4 Mobile Crisis Responder (MCR) Training Overview & Expectations

Why MCR Training?	Who is eligible to be trained?
To equip mobile crisis staff with the skills, competencies, and knowledge necessary to successfully provide mobile crisis response services.	All current mobile crisis private providers who have an active signed MOU with any region within the commonwealth of Virginia.

To successfully complete the training, participants will need to:
- Complete each assigned pre-test and post-test.
- Complete the pre and post work for each of the modules spread across 8 days of training.
- Attend and complete all 8 days of instruction.

MCR Participant Expectations

Training Overview:
- The curriculum consists of modules for both youth and adult mobile crisis response services - approximately 48 hours total of direct instruction, across 8 training days.
- All participants will take the 8-day course in its entirety. Upon completion of all 8 days of training, participants will be certified to provide MCR services to both youth and adults within the region of the agency that holds their active MOU.
- If a participant misses one day of the 8-day MCR training due to emergent or extenuating circumstances, they must immediately reach out to Katie Webb and Amanda Kalna to reschedule the day of training.
- If a participant misses more than 1 day of training, they will be removed from the cohort. They will need to re-enroll and complete the MCR course in its entirety. Participants must be present for Day 1 of training, or they will be removed from the cohort.
- Each module is assigned in the online learning management system (LMS).
- Pre-work is approximately 2-3 hours per module.
- Post-work is approximately 1-2 hours per module.

Participant Expectations:
- Participants must arrive onsite for in-person training by 9:10am or they will not be permitted to attend that day's training.
- Participants will actively engage in small and large group activities.
- The pre-work and pre-test are completed before the start of each module.
- The post-test will be assigned upon completing each module and learners are responsible for completing and passing the post-test. This ensures participants are prepared to start the next module.
